THE HUMANE SOCIETY OF NORTH TEXAS RECEIVES A $33,000 GRANT FROM THE HELEN D. AND R.E. WALLACE FOUNDATION FUND AT NORTH TEXAS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION TO HELP HOMELESS PETS & EQUINES

December 4, 2023—Fort Worth, Texas – The Humane Society of North Texas (HSNT) is delighted to announce the receipt of a generous grant totaling more than $33,000 from The Helen D. and R.E. Wallace Foundation Fund at North Texas Community Foundation. This substantial contribution will play a pivotal role in advancing HSNT’s mission to save, shelter, protect, and advocate for all animals in need in North Texas.

The $33,000 grant will be allocated toward the following initiatives aimed at enhancing the well-being of animals within our care:

- 16-foot Livestock Trailer
- Equine Scale and Vet Stock
- Compact Manure Spreader
- Three Round Pens for Equines
- Two Glass-Enclosed Cat Condos with Special Towers in the Keller Regional Adoption Center

“The Humane Society of North Texas is thankful for this grant funding to improve our ability to care for not only small animals, but our equine and livestock as well,” said Destiny Vandeput, Director of Communications at the Humane Society of North Texas. “With this grant we will be able to provide better, more enriching environments for the pets in our care as well as address practical needs at our Equine and Livestock Ranch.”

HSNT extends its heartfelt appreciation to The Helen D. and R.E. Wallace Foundation Fund at North Texas Community Foundation for their commitment to creating a better future for animals in need. We look forward to leveraging this grant to make a lasting impact on the well-being of animals and our community.
