FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Who Let the Dogs Out??? HSNT flies 87 Dogs to the East Coast!

Fort Worth, Texas, March 22, 2019:

Nearly ninety dogs and puppies will be transported from the Humane Society of North Texas (HSNT) on Saturday, March 23, 2019, to New Jersey and Delaware. HSNT continues to partner with the ASPCA® (American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals®) Animal Relocation Team and Wings of Rescue to fly pets to forever homes where families anxiously await their furry Texas friends!

In preparation for an explosive puppy and kitten season, HSNT relies on transport programs to move adoptable pets of all ages and size to partnering shelters where they will have a better chance of finding permanent homes. To help control pet overpopulation, HSNT also supports the community by offering free spay and neuter services to underserved areas in need. For more information about the Spay & Neuter IT For Free (SNIFF) voucher program, contact HSNT at 817-332-4768 x112 or clinic@hsnt.org.

“St. Hubert’s Animal Welfare Center in New Jersey and Brandywine Valley SPCA in Delaware are Letting the Dogs Out,” said Cassie Lackey, Director of Communications at HSNT. “Pet overpopulation is rampant here in the southern states, but northern states don’t struggle with overcrowded shelters like we do in North Texas. We couldn’t be more excited to know all these precious pooches are going to a final destination where there is a great need for companion pets.”

“Wings of Rescue is proud to fly pets to safety as we continue to partner with our good friends at the Humane Society of North Texas,” said Ric Browde, President & CEO, Wings of Rescue.
